CUSTOMER INFORMATION

Applying for cover

When you apply for this insurance, you will need to complete a proposal form. We will use and rely on the information supplied by you to decide the terms of cover we will provide. We provide cover to you on the terms contained in this document, and the Schedule that we issue to you.

The Schedule will contain important information relevant to your insurance including the Period of Insurance, your Premium, details of your Vehicle, the Excess(es) that will apply to you and others and whether any standard terms have been varied by way of endorsement.

All of these make up your "Policy" with us. You need to keep these documents in a safe place together with receipts and other evidence of ownership and value of items you insure.

Before expiry, we will send you a renewal notice which tells you whether we will renew and on what terms.

Summary of cover and other significant matters

- Comprehensive Cover – this provides you with the cover under Section One – Own Loss or Damage Cover and Section Two – Third Party Liability Cover.

Section One covers theft of or accidental destruction of or damage to your Vehicle occurring within Australia during the Period of Insurance up to the amount we have agreed upon.

Section Two covers your and certain other person's legal liability for loss or damage to someone else's property as a result of an accident caused by or arising out of the use of your Vehicle within Australia during the Period of Insurance up to the limit of liability. A legal liability cover is also provided for death or bodily injury caused to certain other persons in limited circumstances.

- Various optional covers are available (see Section Three – Optional Covers for details).
- Various premium discounts are available if you qualify for these discounts (see Section Four - Premium Discounts for details).

You can choose to cover your Vehicle for:

- An Agreed Value. We will pay you up to this amount if you suffer a covered loss; or

- The Market Value of your Vehicle. This is our assessment of the value of your Vehicle immediately prior to any loss or damage.

You need to make sure that you are happy with the extent of cover provided by this insurance. If not, you may not get the cover you require.

We only provide cover up to the amount(s) and limits specified in your Policy and subject to its other terms, conditions and exclusions. All amounts insured exclude GST.

Refer to each cover Section for details of the basis on which we settle any valid claim.

An Excess may apply when you make a claim. An Excess is the part of a claim you must bear and is payable for each occurrence covered by the insurance. When an Excess applies we will reduce the amount we pay by the amount of the Excess or we will ask you to pay it.

The type and amount of Excess is shown in your Policy and the Schedule. The Excess can depend on a number of factors associated with the risk including the value of the Vehicle, the driver or the particular accessories attached to the Vehicle.

In some cases, we will waive the requirement for you to pay an Excess (See Section 7.3 - Payment of Excesses).

We only cover your interest in the insured property unless we specifically include cover for the interest of a third party.

We may also refuse to pay or reduce the amount we pay under a claim in certain circumstances. In particular:

- where an exclusion applies;
- if you do not comply with the terms and conditions of this insurance;
- if you do not comply with your Duty of Disclosure or make a misrepresentation; or
- if you make a fraudulent claim.

We also may cancel your Policy in certain circumstances permitted by law e.g. if you fail to comply with a condition or breach your duty of disclosure.

Cost of the Insurance

The insurance provided is subject to your payment of the Premium we require by the agreed time. In order to calculate your Premium, we take various factors into consideration, including:

- the type of your Vehicle;
- the value of your Vehicle;
- the type of cover requested;
- your age;
- the Total Agreed Value or Market Value; and
- your previous insurance and claims history (including your No Claim Bonus (“NCB”) rating).

Your premium also includes amounts that take into account our actual or estimated obligation to pay any relevant compulsory government charges, taxes or levies (for example Stamp Duty, GST and any Fire Services Levy where applicable) in relation to your Policy. We will tell you when you apply what premium is payable, when it needs to be paid and how it can be paid. Your Premium may increase if you pay your Premium by instalments. The amount may vary according to where you live and your insurance history.

If you pay your premium by 7 or more instalments each year special conditions apply (see Section Six – General Conditions).

In calculating your Premium we may also consider any NCB rating you have had with a previous insurer.

Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into your Policy with us, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 to disclose to us every matter that you know, or a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

The Act imposes a different duty the first time you enter into your Policy with us, to that which applies when you renew, vary, extend or replace it.

Your Duty of Disclosure when you enter into your Policy with us for the first time

We will ask you various questions when you first apply that are relevant to our decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms. When you answer those questions, you must:

- give us honest and complete answers;
- tell us everything you know; and
- tell us everything that a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know.

Your Duty of Disclosure when you renew, vary, extend, reinstate or replace your Policy

When you renew, extend, vary or reinstate your Policy, your duty is to disclose to us before the renewal, extension, variation or reinstatement, every matter that you know, or a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

What you do not need to tell us

Your duty however does not require disclosure of a matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by us;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that we know or, in the ordinary course of business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by us.

Who does the Duty of Disclosure apply to?

The duty of disclosure applies to you and everyone that is an insured under your Policy.

What happens if you or they do not comply with the Duty of Disclosure?

If you, or they, fail to comply with the duty of disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under your Policy in respect of a claim or cancel it. If the non-disclosure is fraudulent, we may be able to treat your Policy as if it was never effected.

Cooling off rights

After you make a decision to purchase this insurance, you have cooling off rights. You can return your insurance by notifying us in writing within 21 days of cover commencing and we will refund the Premium paid unless something has occurred for which a claim may be payable. Even after this cooling off period ends you still have cancellation rights (See Section Six – General Conditions).

The Agreement

In return for your payment of the Premium or your agreement to pay it to us within the time we require, we agree to indemnify you against loss, damage or liability which occurs during the Period of Insurance and is covered by the Policy subject to the terms, conditions and exclusions of the Policy.

How to make a claim

Section Six – General Conditions and Section Seven – Claims, tell you what you need to do. Before we pay any claim, we require evidence as to ownership of any items insured under the Policy and evidence as to the extent of the loss or damage. Please ensure that, where possible, you keep any photographs or other documentation in respect of loss or damage to make the process as easy as possible. Any claim settlements, up to the total of all amounts insured, will exclude GST. However, if there is a shortfall between the GST component of your claim and the amount of input tax credit you are entitled to, we will pay this shortfall in addition to the claim settlement.

Confirming Transactions

You may contact us in writing or by phone to confirm any transaction under your insurance if you or your adviser do not already have the required policy confirmation details.

Updating our Product Disclosure Statement

We may need to update this PDS from time to time if certain changes occur where required and permitted by law. We will issue you with a new PDS or a Supplementary PDS to update the relevant information except in limited cases. Where the information is not something that would be materially adverse from the point of view of a reasonable person considering whether to buy this insurance, we may issue you with notice of this information in other forms or keep an internal record of such changes (you can get a paper copy free of charge by calling us).

Compensation Arrangements

The Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) requires licensees to have arrangements for compensating retail clients for losses they suffer as a result of a breach by the licensee or its representatives of Chapter 7 of this Act, unless an exemption applies. SECTION THREE

Optional Covers

3.1 Windscreen Replacement

When you have selected this option (and paid an additional premium, and it is shown on your Schedule), should you need to replace your windscreen only or window glass only as a result of an accident, theft or other insured event, there will be no application of an Excess or change in your No Claim Bonus Rating (where applicable), provided such breakage is accidental, occurs during the Period of Insurance and is the only damage sustained by your Vehicle.

3.2 Protected No Claim Bonus

When you have selected this option (and paid an additional premium, and it is shown on your Schedule), your No Claim Bonus will not be affected if you make a claim, provided

- (a) You are, at the time of the loss or damage, on a maximum No Claim Bonus; and
- (b) When this option was selected you had been claims free for 2 consecutive years immediately prior to the current Period of Insurance.

This cover does not apply if someone other than you, or a nominated driver shown on your Schedule, is driving the Vehicle at the time of the loss or damage.

3.3 Hire Car following accident

When you have selected this option (and paid an additional premium, and it is shown on your Schedule), and your Vehicle is damaged requiring repair or is a Total Loss, and we agree to pay a claim, if you need to hire a replacement car, then we will reimburse you for reasonable Hire Car Costs for up to 14 days, or less if your Vehicle is repaired before then. This cover commences from the date your Vehicle is taken to the repairer. We will not pay more than $80 per day under this benefit.

3.4 Express freight

When you have selected this option (and paid an additional premium, and it is shown on your Schedule) and we agree to pay a claim, we will pay up to 10% of the Agreed Value or Market Value towards the cost of express air freight to import the parts necessary to repair your Vehicle, if the parts are not obtainable in Australia.

SECTION FOUR - Premium Discounts

4.1 Low Kilometre option

When you have selected this option, and it is shown on your Schedule, your premium will be reduced if you travel 10,000 kilometres or less in a 12 month Period of Insurance. At the commencement of your Policy and on renewal, we will require a signed declaration stating the kilometres will not exceed 10,000 in a 12 month period. Should the distance travelled exceed 10,000 kms, the discount will be removed and an additional premium, including a 10% loading on the annual premium, will be charged. In the event of a claim, this figure will be deducted from your claim payout.

4.2 Double the basic excess option

When you have selected this option, and it is shown on your Schedule, your premium will be reduced. The basic excess will be doubled and this amount will be shown on your Schedule.

4.3 Increased basic excess option

When you have selected this option to Increase the Basic Excess by $500, $1,000, $2,000, $2,500 or $3,000 your premium will be reduced. The increase in basic excess will be applied and this amount will be shown on your Schedule.

SECTION SIX - General Conditions

6.1 Duty of Disclosure and Misrepresentation

If you:

- (a) failed to comply with the duty of disclosure before your Policy was entered into, by not telling us every matter which you knew or which a reasonable person could be expected to have known to be a matter relevant to our decision whether to insure you and on what terms to insure you; or
- (b) misrepresented any fact to us before your Policy was entered into; and if we would not have entered into the Policy with you for the same Premium and on the same terms and conditions expressed in your Policy but for the failure to disclose or the misrepresentations, then if the non-disclosure or misrepresentation was fraudulent or dishonest

- (i) we may avoid your Policy; or
- (ii) our liability in respect of any claim may be reduced to an amount which would place us in the position in which we would have been but for your failure to disclose or your misrepresentation.

6.2 Cancellation by you

You may cancel your Policy at any time by telling us in writing you want to cancel it.

Where more than one person is insured under your Policy, we will only cancel the Policy when a written request to cancel the Policy is received from all insured persons.

Cancellation by you will be effective when we receive your request and all cover will cease.

We subtract from any premium you have paid us an amount to cover the Period of Insurance that we have already insured you for. We then return the rest of the premium to you, less any Policy fees or administration fees (these are non refundable) and any non refundable government charges and/or cancellation fees.

6.3 Cancellation by us

We may cancel your Policy by giving you written notice and in accordance with the law, including where you have:

- (a) made a misrepresentation to us before the Policy was entered into;
- (b) failed to comply with the Duty of Disclosure;
- (c) failed to comply with a term or condition of your Policy including failure to pay the Premium;
- (d) made a fraudulent claim under your Policy or any other Policy during the time your Policy has been in effect;
- (e) failed to notify us of a specific act or omission as required by your Policy; or
- (f) failed to tell us about any changes in the circumstances of the risk during the Period of Insurance.

If we cancel your Policy, we will advise you in writing and all cover will cease at the earlier of the following times:

- (g) when another contract of insurance is taken out by you to replace your Policy; or
- (h) at 4.00p.m. Local Standard Time of the third business day after the day on which notice was given to you or such later time as we may specify in the notice.

After cancellation and subject to your cooling off period rights (See Important Information Section – Cooling Off Rights), we subtract from any premium you have paid us an amount to cover the Period of Insurance that we have already insured you for. We then return the rest of the premium to you, less any Policy fees or administration fees (these are non refundable) and any non refundable government charges and/or cancellation fees. There is no refund if you have been paying by monthly premium instalments or if we agree to pay a claim, and your Vehicle is a Total Loss.

We will cancel this Policy if an instalment premium has remained unpaid for more than 1 month. The cancellation will take effect from the date of your last due instalment. Applicable administration and/or policy fees taken in your first instalment will not be refunded.

6.4 Monthly Premium Instalments

Where you are paying by 7 or more monthly premium instalment payments each year:

- (a) if you do not pay any Premium instalment by the date agreed, we will:
 - (i) in the event of a claim, not pay for any loss, damage or liability incurred if such instalment is more than 14 days overdue. If such instalment is less than 14 days overdue, we are entitled to deduct the overdue amount from any claim settlement; and
 - (ii) automatically cancel your Policy if any Premium instalment is more than 30 days in arrears.
- (b) and where we agree to pay a claim and your Vehicle is a Total Loss, we are entitled to deduct all remaining Premium instalments which are unpaid, from any claim settlement.

6.5 Transfer of interest in the Policy

No interest in this Policy can be transferred without our written consent.

6.6 Obligations of third parties covered by your Policy

Any other person entitled to cover under your Policy is bound by the terms and conditions of your Policy.

6.7 Other insurance

You must notify us in writing if you have already effected, or if in the future you effect, any insurance or insurances which cover any matter covered by your Policy, in whole or in part.

To the extent permitted by law, when other insurance applies to a covered loss, we will pay only in excess of the other insurance, limited to the indemnity being provided under your Policy, unless that other insurance was specifically written to be excess over the indemnity provided in your Policy.

6.8 Reasonable protection and maintenance of your Vehicle

You must take all reasonable steps to protect your Vehicle from loss and damage and comply with all legal requirements regarding the safety, maintenance and operation of your Vehicle.

6.9 Notice of changes in circumstances

You must give us notice as soon as possible:

- (a) of any change in or addition to the person or persons who will drive the Vehicle;
- (b) where any drivers licence is restricted, suspended or cancelled;
- (c) of particulars of any motor accidents involving you or any person who drives your Vehicle;
- (d) of particulars of any conversion, alteration or modification of your Vehicle from its maker's specifications. You must pay any additional premium if required;
- (e) if any alarm/anti theft device ceases to be in good working order; or
- (f) if there is a change in the use of your Vehicle.

6.10 Renewal

At expiry of the Policy, we may offer to enter into a new agreement for a new Period of Insurance.

Any renewal advice will indicate the Premium payable for the new agreement and any proposed alteration to the agreement. Before the Policy is renewed you must comply with the duty of disclosure (See Important Information Section - Duty of Disclosure and Section 6.1 – Duty of Disclosure and Misrepresentation).

6.11 Dangerous Goods

If any hazardous goods or substances are carried in your Vehicle you must comply with all relevant laws, by-laws and/or statutory regulations. Should non-compliance with this condition prejudice our interests, the amount of any benefit under the Policy will be reduced by the amount that represents the extent to which our interests have been prejudiced by that non-compliance.

6.12 Changing Your Policy

If you want to make a change to your Policy, the change becomes effective when:

- (a) we tell you in writing we have agreed to it; or
- (b) we give you a new Schedule or endorsement detailing the change.

6.13 Notices

We will give you any notice in writing. It will be effective from the earlier of the time of:

- (a) delivery to you personally; or
- (b) postage to your address last known to us.

It is important for you to tell us of any change of address as soon as possible.

6.14 Law and Jurisdiction

This insurance is subject to the laws of the State or Territory in Australia where your Policy was issued.

SECTION SEVEN - Claims

7.1 What you must do when you make a claim

- (a) you must advise us by telephone or in writing as soon as practicable after you suffer a loss or damage. You should send us
 - (i) full details in writing; and
 - (ii) any communication or court document received.

If you do not make a claim within a reasonable time of the loss, we may reduce what we pay to you to allow for any financial disadvantage we may have suffered because of the delay.

- (b) you must take all reasonable steps to stop any further loss from occurring;
- (c) you must not repair or replace any damaged property without our consent. You may choose your licensed repairer, but before repairs are started you must:

- (i) obtain our written agreement to your chosen licensed repairer; and
- (ii) make your Vehicle available for our inspection.

We reserve the right to invite, accept, adjust or decline estimates or to arrange (at our expense) for the removal of your Vehicle to another repairer acceptable to both of us for quotation purposes.

- (d) you must notify the Police as soon as possible in respect of theft of, attempted theft of or malicious damage to your Vehicle, or if damage to property other than the vehicles involved exceeds $500, or if a person was injured in an accident;
- (e) if your Vehicle is stolen, you must immediately contact the relevant vehicle tracking bureau if your Vehicle is fitted with a remote tracking security system;
- (f) you must not pay or promise to pay or offer payment or admit responsibility for a claim;
- (g) you must keep the property that has been damaged so we can inspect it;
- (h) you must notify us of any other insurance that also provides cover, whether in whole or in part;
- (i) you must provide us with all the information that we require including valuations, receipts, proof of ownership and statutory declarations if requested; and
- (j) you must give us all the information and cooperation that we require and promptly forward to us all correspondence received by you concerning the event or claim or loss or damage.

7.2 When we agree to pay a claim

- (a) we will reduce the amount we pay you by the Excess (See Section 7.3 below) and any Premium due to us;
- (b) we will not pay you more than the Sum Insured or relevant limit applicable to the item unless otherwise stated in your Policy; and
- (c) we have the right to exercise your legal rights to conduct, defend or settle any legal or recovery action that we consider necessary and to do so in your name.

7.3 Payment of Excesses

An Excess may apply when you make a claim. An Excess is the part of a claim you must pay and is payable for each occurrence covered by the Policy.

There are 7 types of excesses that may apply to your claim:

- (a) Basic excess
- (b) Age excess
- (c) Inexperienced driver excess
- (d) Non nominated driver excess
- (e) Double the basic excess
- (f) Increased basic excess
- (g) Imposed excess

If any of these excesses apply to you or other drivers of your Vehicle we will reduce the amount we pay by the amount of the Excess or we will ask you to pay it.

The type and amount of Excess is shown in your Policy and the Schedule.

For example, if we agree to pay your claim where the repair costs are $5,000 and your excess is $750, we will pay $4,250. Usually, we will ask you to pay this excess to the repairer when you pick up your Vehicle.

In some cases, we will waive the requirement for you to pay an Excess. This applies if you have an accident involving another vehicle which damages or destroys your Vehicle and we agree that the accident was not your fault.

We consider an accident not your fault if:

1. we agree that it is not your fault; and
2. another person (not driving your Vehicle or a passenger in your Vehicle) or their insurer admits to us that another person is at fault; and
3. you tell us the correct name, current address and driver's licence number of the person or persons who are at fault and the correct registration number and description of their vehicle or vehicles.

Claims where only a basic excess applies

No age or inexperienced driver excess applies if the claim is for damage caused by theft, malicious damage, hail, flood, storm or other natural disasters.

Excess in legal liability claims

If we agree to pay a claim to a third party for your legal liability, you must pay us any excess that applies to that claim. This excess will not apply if you have already paid an excess for theft, loss or damage to your Vehicle for the same event.

Please remember, the amount of any excess that applies to your claim is shown in the Schedule and in your Policy.

Excess in Windscreen claims

We will only charge the basic excess shown in your Schedule unless you have selected the Optional Cover for Windscreen Replacement, (and you have paid an additional premium and it is shown in your Schedule).

The 7 types of excesses are:

(a) Basic excess

We apply a basic excess to every claim unless we agree you do not have to pay this excess.

(b) Age excess

In addition to the basic excess and any other applicable excesses, we apply an age excess to a claim if the person driving your Vehicle at the time of the loss or damage is under 25 years of age. You will find the amounts of these excesses and how they apply to each driver in your Schedule.

Please remember, you must tell us as soon as possible if there is any change to the list of people who are likely to drive your Vehicle.

(c) Inexperienced driver excess

In addition to the basic excess and any other applicable excesses, an inexperienced driver excess will apply if the person driving the Vehicle, at the time of the loss or damage, had been licensed to drive for less than 2 years and is 25 years of age or more. You will find the amounts of these excesses and how they apply to each driver in your Schedule.

(d) Non nominated driver excess

In addition to the basic excess and any other applicable excesses, a non-nominated driver excess of $5000 will also apply if the person who is driving the Vehicle at the time of the loss or damage is not noted on the Schedule.

We will not apply this excess in respect of accidents involving:

- (i) Loss or damage occurring whilst your Vehicle is in the custody of a person in the motor trade for the purposes of repair, maintenance, service or storage; or
- (ii) Loss or damage caused by fire, explosion, lightning, hail, flood or theft.

(e) Double the basic excess

If you have selected this Option to Double the Basic Excess and it is shown on your Schedule and you need to make a claim against your Policy, then the basic excess shown on your Schedule will be applied in addition to any other applicable excesses.

(f) Increased basic excess

If you have selected this Option to Increase the Basic Excess and it is shown on your Schedule and you need to make a claim against your Policy, then the basic excess shown on your Schedule will be applied in addition to any other applicable excesses.

(g) Imposed excess

In addition to the basic excess and any other applicable excesses, an imposed special excess may be applied. You will find the amounts of these excesses and how they apply to each driver noted in your Schedule.

7.4 Salvage

If your Vehicle is a Total Loss the wreckage of your Vehicle will, at our option, become our property and we will keep the proceeds of any salvage sale.

7.5 Total Loss

If your Vehicle is a Total Loss your Policy is treated as having come to an end. A new Policy must be effected for a replacement vehicle. We will not refund any Premium, relevant government charges, administration and Policy fees. Any outstanding unexpired portion of your Vehicle's registration and stamp duty becomes our property and we are entitled to any registration and stamp duty refund where applicable.

If we agree to pay your claim and your Vehicle is a Total Loss we will pay you the Market Value of your Vehicle as determined by an independent assessor or the Agreed Value of your Vehicle as stated in your Schedule less:

- (a) any excess that may apply;
- (b) any finance owing on your Vehicle; and
- (c) the remaining Premium and government charges owing from your total annual premium and any outstanding administration and Policy fees (if you are paying your Policy premium by monthly instalments).
