Significant risks

Your sum insured may not be adequate

The Policy provides replacement or reinstatement conditions for home and contents which means that claims are settled without contribution for age, depreciation or wear and tear. It is important that the sums insured you select cover the cost of replacing your home and contents on a new for old basis. The sums insured that you select must make allowance for structural improvements (such as sheds, pergolas, and fencing) and any additional benefits that are included in the sum insured.

It is important that you read the sub-limits in the Terms and Conditions for items such as works of art, items of jewellery, collections. If you have an item or a group of items that will cost more than the sub-limit to replace, then you will need to nominate them to ensure that they are covered for more than the sub-limit.

For example, there is a sub limit on jewellery of $5,000 per item, and in total 25% of the unspecified contents sum insured. If it would cost more than this to replace your jewellery as new, then you must specify your jewellery items to ensure that you are covered for its full value.

A claim may be refused

We may refuse to pay or reduce the amount we pay under a claim if you do not comply with the Policy conditions, if you do not comply with your Duty of Disclosure, or if you make a fraudulent claim.

The cost of this insurance Policy

The total premium is the amount we charge you for this Insurance Policy. It includes the amount which we have calculated will cover the risk, and any taxes and government charges. The premium and any taxes and government charges will be shown on your Policy Schedule.

When calculating your premium we take a range of rating factors into account. These factors, and the degree to which they affect your premium, will depend upon the information you provide to us.

Some factors that impact the calculation of your premium include; where the home or contents are located, the sum insured and your previous insurance and claims history.

Duty of Disclosure – What you must tell us

Under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (the Act), you have a Duty of Disclosure. The Act requires that before a policy is entered into, you must give us certain information we need to decide whether to insure you and anyone else to be insured under the policy, and on what terms. Your Duty of Disclosure is different, depending on whether this is a new Policy or not.

New business

Where you are entering into this Policy for the first time (that is, it is new business and is not being renewed, varied, extended or reinstated) you must tell us everything you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to tell us, in answer to the specific questions we ask. We will use the answers in deciding whether to insure you and anyone else to be insured under the policy, and, if so, on what terms.

When answering our questions you must be honest.

Who needs to tell us

It is important that you understand you are answering our questions in this way for yourself and anyone else whom you want to be covered by the Policy.

If you do not tell us

If you do not answer our questions in this way, we may reduce or refuse to pay a claim, or cancel the Policy. If you answer our questions fraudulently, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the Policy as never having worked.

Renewals, variations, extensions and reinstatements

Once your Policy is entered into and is no longer new business then your duty to us changes. You are required before you renew, vary, extend or reinstate your Policy, to tell us everything you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know, is a matter that is relevant to our decision whether to insure you, and anyone else to be insured under the Policy, and if so, on what terms.

You do not have to tell us about any matter:

- that diminishes the risk;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that we know or should know in the ordinary course; of our business as an insurer; or
- which we indicate we do not want to know.

If you do not tell us

If you do not comply with your Duty of Disclosure we may reduce or refuse to pay a claim or cancel your Policy. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent we may treat this Policy as never having worked.

Full details of what you must do for us to consider your claim are provided at the end of this booklet.

Dispute resolution

We will do everything possible to provide a quality service to you. However, we recognise that occasionally there may be some aspect of our service or a decision we have made that you wish to query or draw to our attention. We have a Complaints and Dispute Resolution Procedure which undertakes to provide an answer to your complaint within 15 working days provided we have all the information necessary to consider your complaint.

If you would like to make a complaint or access our internal dispute resolution service please contact us and ask to speak to a dispute resolution specialist.

If you are not happy with our answer, or we have taken more than 15 working days to respond, you may take your complaint to the Insurance Ombudsman Service (IOS), an ASIC approved external dispute resolution body.

The IOS resolves certain insurance disputes between consumers and insurers and will provide an independent review at no cost to you. We are bound by the determination of the IOS but the determination is not binding on you.

We will provide the contact telephone number and address of the IOS office upon request.

How you may cancel this Policy

- You may cancel this Policy at any time by telling us in writing that you want to cancel it. You can do this by giving the notice to your Insurance Broker.

Cooling-off information

If you want to return your insurance after your decision to buy it, you may cancel it and receive a full refund. To do this you may notify your Insurance Broker electronically or in writing within 21 days from the date the Policy commenced. This cooling off right does not apply if you have made or are entitled to make a claim. Even after the cooling off period ends, you still have cancellation rights however we may deduct certain amounts from any refund for administration costs or any nonrefundable taxes.

Providing proof

So that your claim can be assessed quickly you should keep the following:

- receipts or other confirmation of purchase; and
- valuations.

We may ask you for these if you make a claim. You must be able to prove to us that you have suffered a loss that is covered by this Policy before we will pay you for it.

Other party's interests

You must tell us of the interests of all parties (e.g. financiers, owners, lessors) who will be covered by this insurance. We will protect their interests only if you have told us about them and we have noted them on your Policy Schedule.

How you can pay your premium

You can pay your premium to your appointed Insurance Broker according to their business practices.

If you pay your premium annually, you must pay it by the due date to your Insurance Broker to ensure your policy is not terminated.

If you pay your premium by instalments we will not pay a claim under this Policy if, at the time the claim occurred, any instalment of premium has remained unpaid for 14 days or more.

If any instalment of premium has remained unpaid for at least one month, we may cancel this Policy. We will send you a notice giving you details of the action we intend to take and when any cancellation will become effective.

We are entitled to deduct from any amount we pay you under a claim any unpaid premium or instalment of premium. If you are paying your premium in instalments by direct debit from your credit card or financial institution account, you must tell us if those details change.

Preventing our right of recovery

If you have agreed not to seek compensation from another person who is liable to compensate you for any loss, damage or liability which is covered by this Policy, we will not cover you under this Policy for that loss, damage or liability.

How we will pay

Home

(a) At our option we:

- repair the home;
- replace the home to a condition substantially the same as, but not better than when new;
- pay the reasonable cost of its repair or replacement to a condition substantially the same as when new; or
- pay up to the sum insured shown on your Policy Schedule.

If your home is damaged beyond economic repair, we will pay no more than the reasonable cost of replacement when new even if you have insured for an amount greater than the reasonable cost of replacement when new. When we pay your claim for your home being damaged beyond economic repair, the Policy is exhausted and comes to an end;

- (b) You may choose to have the home replaced at another site, but we do not pay more than we would have had we replaced the home at the insured site.
- (c) If your home is damaged beyond economic repair and you do not commence rebuilding within 6 months of the damage occurring, (or any other period which we agree with you in writing) you may have to pay any increase in cost caused by your delay.
- (d) If part of a home is damaged by an insured event and we agree to pay your claim, we pay only for the part or parts of the home that actually sustained damage. We do not pay to replace any undamaged materials.

However, if:

- it is impossible to acquire new material to replace the damaged material that reasonably matches the undamaged portion to a similar extent as immediately prior to the damage occurring; and
- the amount of damaged material that cannot be matched to the undamaged material is more than 40% of the total material that would have to be replaced if all the matching damaged and undamaged material was replaced, then we will replace both the damaged and undamaged material.

Example 1

There are 300 matching white, wall tiles in the bathroom. As a result of a burst pipe, 8 bathroom wall tiles are damaged. We would pay only the reasonable cost to repair or replace the 8 damaged tiles to a condition substantially the same as when new.

(In addition, we would pay for damage sustained in locating the leak under insured event (h) in the table under the heading ‘What you are insured against, and what you are NOT’.)

Example 2

There are 300 superseded, matching, wall tiles in the bathroom. As a result of a burst pipe, 140 wall tiles are damaged. It is impossible to locate tiles that reasonably match the remaining 160 tiles. Over 40% of the matching wall tiles have been damaged. Therefore, we would pay the reasonable cost to repair or replace all 300 tiles (140 damaged and 160 undamaged) to a condition substantially the same as when new. We would be entitled to keep the 160 undamaged wall tiles by way of salvage.

We would not pay to replace any tiles located in a room other than where the loss or damage occurred.

- (e) Where materials that are required to settle a claim that we agree to pay are not commercially available in Australia, at our option, we:
- replace the material with the nearest equivalent or similar new materials available in Australia or overseas; or
 - pay the cost to replace the material with the nearest equivalent or similar new materials available in Australia or overseas.

Contents

- (a) At our option we:
- repair the damaged items;
 - replace the items with items substantially the same as, but not better than when new;

- pay the reasonable cost of repair or reinstatement to a condition substantially the same as, but not better than when new; or
- pay up to the sum insured shown on your Policy Schedule.

If your contents are damaged beyond economic repair, we will pay no more than the reasonable cost of replacement when new even if you have insured for an amount greater than the reasonable cost of replacement when new. When we pay your claim for all your contents being damaged beyond economic repair, the Policy is exhausted and comes to an end. We will not pay more than the total contents sum insured for all contents lost or damaged.

- (b) If we agree to pay a claim where film, photos, home movies or home videos or any similar recorded material is destroyed, we pay for the replacement with new, blank film, videos or similar (e.g. If a compact disc upon which you had photos stored is destroyed, we would replace it with a new, blank compact disc). We do not pay to reconstruct any circumstances or conditions.
- (c) If we agree to pay a claim where software is lost, damaged or destroyed, we pay the cost to replace it with the nearest equivalent new software. We do not pay for any software that was acquired by you at no cost;
- (d) Where an item required to settle a claim that we agree to pay is not commercially available in Australia, at our option, we:
- replace the item with the nearest equivalent or similar new item available in Australia or overseas; or
 - pay the cost to replace the item with the nearest equivalent or similar new item available in Australia or overseas.

(e) The maximum we pay on the following contents items is shown in the table below. We will pay up to the amount specified for each item. You may obtain higher limits for items (a) and (b) by having an item specified on your Policy Schedule.

Contents where a maximum limit applies	Maximum Limit
(a) Works of art, pictures, tapestries or rugs.	$20,000 per item
(b) Items of jewellery, gold or silver articles, furs, watches, collections of coins, stamps or medals.	$5,000 per item and in total 25% of the sum insured for unspecified contents
(c) Data stored on any computer disk or tape (including cost of data restoration).	$500 in total
(d) Office or surgical equipment used by you or your family in your or their own business in the home.	$20,000 in total
(e) Other equipment used by you or your family for earning income.	$10,000 in total Including a maximum of $1,500 for business stock kept temporarily in the home
(f) Accessories, or spare parts of motor vehicles (including motor cycles and motor scooters), caravans, trailers and	$1,000 in total

Contents where a maximum limit applies	Maximum Limit
watercraft NOT in or on the motor vehicle, caravan, trailer, or watercraft. We include motor vehicle keys, remote locking or alarm devices as accessories while they are not in or on the motor vehicle but we do not pay for any re-coding of devices or changing of vehicle locks.
(g) Cash, coins, negotiables or bullion.	$1,000 in total
(h) Storm damage to or theft of contents in the open air.	$2,000, except for storm damage to above ground swimming pools or saunas that are full.

Note:

Where an item could be classified under more than one of the above maximum limits, (a) through to (h), the lower or lowest limit applies. For example, if an item of unspecified, antique jewellery worth $11,000 was stolen from the home and we agreed to pay the claim, the maximum limit of $5,000 for jewellery would apply even though there is no sub limit for antiques. If the item has been specified for $11,000, then we would pay up to $11,000 to replace the item. The sum we pay you would be subject to any applicable excess.

If we choose to pay to replace a specified item, we will pay no more than the amount that it would cost us to replace the item with an item substantially the same as, but not better than when new, even if you have specified the item for a higher amount, whether or not you have supplied a valuation. We have negotiated special arrangements with various suppliers to purchase items for less than retail cost. Premiums are therefore based upon us replacing items at less than retail cost.

Antiques

Where we pay a claim for an antique item, and the market value of the item exceeds the cost of its replacement with a new item because of its antiquity and rarity, we will treat the market value as though it is the cost to replace the lost or damaged antique with a new item.

For example:

An antique sterling silver claret jug created in 1880 is stolen and we agree to pay the claim. A valuation for $11,000 has been supplied to us. To replace the item with the closest, similar new item would cost $2,100. At the time of the loss, our inquiries indicate that to replace that antique item at market value would be approximately $11,000 but there is no equivalent item currently for sale in Australia or overseas. The market value of the item is higher than the new replacement cost due to the item's antiquity and rarity. In this instance, we would pay you $11,000 for the jug rather than $2,100. The sum we pay you would be subject to any applicable excess.

(f) Floor and Wall Coverings, Blinds and Curtains

For wall coverings, and carpets and other floor coverings, curtains and internal blinds, we pay only for items in the room, hall or passage where the damage occurred.

(g) Pairs and Sets

A 'pair or set' means 2 or more articles, the collective value of which exceeds the sum of their individual values.

In the event of a total loss of any article or articles which are part of a pair or set, we agree to pay you – at your option, exercisable after the loss – the full amount of the value of such pair or set, and you agree to surrender the remaining article or articles of the pair or set to us.

If you elect not to surrender the remaining article(s) of the pair or set to us, then we will only pay for the value of the item itself. The most we will pay is the value that the item has as a proportion of the combined pair or set. We will only pay the cost of replacing the item even though the pair or set to which it belongs is less valuable because it is incomplete.

You must tell us of your new address within 30 days of first moving to it. If you wish to insure your contents at your new address after that 30 days we must agree to insure them at that address.

 - can be attributed to deliberate evasion or recklessness as stipulated in income tax ruling IT2517.
- any audit conducted in relation to any facts or circumstances of which you were aware, or ought to have been aware, prior to the commencement of this Policy which were likely to lead to your making a claim under this Policy; or

17. Legal defence costs

If you occupy the home insured by this Policy as your primary residence or this Policy insures your contents in your primary residence, we will pay or reimburse you for your legal fees, costs, and expenses which you reasonably incur in legal proceedings initiated against you by a third party (and defended by you) but only where the proceedings are commenced in Australia during the period of insurance.

18. Waiver of excess if your property is a total loss

You are not required to pay an excess if we agree to pay a claim as a result of damage that renders your home, contents or both beyond economic repair.

19. Loss of rent or temporary accommodation

If your home is so damaged by an event for which we agree to pay a claim that it cannot be lived in, or let to tenants, we will pay:

- (a) If the policy insures your home we pay up to $20,000, or 20% of the sum insured for your home, whichever is the higher, for:

- additional cost of reasonable temporary accommodation where the home is your principal place of residence; or
- loss of rent or rental value, if the home is tenanted or is between tenants at the time the loss or damage occurred.

Forced Evacuation by Government Authority

If this policy insures the building that you let to tenants, and if your home cannot be lived in because a government authority prohibits you from using it, we pay any resultant rent lost. We pay for a maximum of 60 days for your home for loss of rent or rentable value if the home is tenanted or is between tenants at the time the loss or damage occurred. The prohibition must be as a direct result of damage to neighbouring premises that would be classed as insured damage under this Policy. We do not cover loss due to cancellation of a lease or agreement including if a tenant decides to leave without giving proper notice.

If you cannot live at the situation because a government authority denies you access, we will pay any increase in your living expenses that is necessary and reasonable to maintain your normal standard of living for up to 60 days. The denial must be as a direct result of damage to neighbouring premises that would be classed as insured damage under this Policy. We will not cover loss due to cancellation of a lease or agreement.

Under Additional Benefit 19, we do not pay for:

- loss of rent if the home has not been tenanted for 30 consecutive days immediately before the loss;
- any rent lost after the home is capable of being tenanted; or
- any rent lost later than 12 months after the damage occurs.

If You are a tenant, “additional costs” means costs over and above the amount for which you were renting the home when it was fit to live in.

20. Automatic reinstatement of sum insured

This benefit applies to the sums insured for home and unspecified contents as shown on your Policy Schedule. Following payment of a claim other than a claim for total loss the sums insured will be reinstated, unless:

- you request otherwise; or
- we tell you otherwise.

21. Inflation adjustment

This benefit only applies to the home and contents sums insured as shown on your Policy Schedule.

During each period of insurance we increase the home and contents sums insured shown on your current Policy Schedule per month until the next renewal date. We do this with reference to the Consumer Price Index or other relevant index.

There will be no additional premium payable during the Period of Insurance. However, at the end of each

Period of Insurance the renewal premium for the next Period of Insurance will be calculated on the amount of an increased sum(s) insured.

22. Compensation for death, quadriplegia or paraplegia

If this Policy insures your contents in your primary Residence:

- we pay to the legal representative of the deceased person up to $10,000 in the event of death of you or a member of your family normally living with you
- as a direct result of physical injury caused by an event at the site, if the event that caused the death also caused damage for which we agree to pay a claim.

We do not pay in any one period of insurance more than $10,000 in total under this additional benefit. If you or a member of your family normally living with you are permanently and totally disabled as a direct result of an insured event occurring at the site, we pay you up to $10,000.

‘Permanent total disablement’ means:

Total paralysis of both legs and a part of or the whole of the lower half of the body; or total paralysis of both legs and both arms; which continues for a period of 12 months, and after that time is considered to be of indefinite duration.

23. Modifications to the home

If you or a member of your family normally living with you are permanently and totally disabled as a direct result of an insured event occurring at the site, we pay up to $10,000 for the cost incurred by you in modifying your home, or in relocating you to a suitable home if you are a tenant.

- 20% of your total claims cost; or
- $5,000,

whichever is the lesser.

26. Legal costs

If this Policy insures your home, we pay the reasonable legal costs incurred in discharging your mortgage following settlement of a claim for total loss.

27. Veterinary expenses for domestic cats and dogs

If this policy insures your contents in your primary residence, we pay the reasonable veterinary expenses incurred by you, if your pet is injured during the period of insurance as a result of fire, lightning, earthquake or a road accident.

We will not pay under this Additional benefit more than $500 in total in any one period of insurance.

28. Temporary Protection

If this Policy insures your home and we agree to pay a claim under this Policy, we will also pay the reasonable costs of temporary protection of your home. If this Policy insures your contents, we also pay for storage charges necessarily and reasonably incurred to protect them from further loss or damage following a claim by fire, storm or rainwater.

29. Building Materials

We will pay up to $1,000 in any one Period of Insurance for loss incurred by you if building materials are lost or damaged at the site during the Period of Insurance due to an insured event. Cover only applies to building materials intended to be used for repairs, alterations or additions to your home at the site.

30. New Replacement Residence – Temporary Cover

We will provide cover for an additional residential building when you purchase it for a maximum of 30 days from the date you sign a contract of purchase. The amount of cover provided is limited to the sum insured on your home shown on your Policy Schedule. We only provide this cover when the residential building is replacing the home on your policy schedule as your primary residence.

Part B – Personal Effects

If you have selected and paid for this Personal Effects option, we insure you and your family:

- anywhere in Australia or New Zealand; and
- for up to 90 days in any one period of insurance, anywhere in the world;

against loss, theft or damage to unspecified or specified personal effects belonging to you, your family or for which you or they are legally responsible.

You can choose to insure your personal effects as either:

- unspecified personal effects; and
- specified personal effects.

Your Policy Schedule indicates whether you have chosen this option and whether you have selected unspecified personal effects and / or specified personal effects.

You can select unspecified personal effects without having to specify individual items. If you select unspecified personal effects, you are covered up to the limit you have selected as shown on your policy schedule under the heading "Part B – Personal Effects".

If you select specified personal effects, then you must specify each item you wish to insure as a specified item and provide valuations and/or receipts, unless we tell you that a valuation is not required.

There are some limitations below and under 'When you are not covered', which you must read.

What we insure

Unspecified personal effects

Unspecified personal effects are items of personal property specifically designed to be worn or carried, which includes:

- jewellery;
- gold or silver objects;
- watches;
- sporting equipment, except while in use or play;
- bicycles;
- camping equipment, back packs and sleeping bags;
- photographic equipment including video equipment;
- musical equipment;
- battery operated sound equipment;
- binoculars;
- clothing;
- wheel chairs, crutches and walking sticks;
- prams or strollers;
- luggage;
- personal mobile cellular phones, portable computers and other portable electronic equipment;
- hearing aids, contact lenses, eye-glasses; and
- portable leisure equipment.

Specified personal effects

Specified personal effects, if you have chosen to insure them, are those items shown as 'specified personal effects on the Policy Schedule.

What we do not insure

The following items are not covered under this personal effects option:

- vehicles (including motor cycles and motor scooters), aircraft, aerial devices, watercraft or anything associated with these items;
- musical instruments and photographic equipment used in connection with a profession, trade or business, or otherwise for reward;
- cash, coin or stamp collections, negotiables, or financial transaction cards;
- unset precious or semi-precious stones; or
- items being cleaned, repaired, restored, or on exhibition away from the site.

How much we will pay for loss or damage

(a) At our option we:

- repair the damaged item;
- replace the lost or damaged item with an item substantially the same as, but not better than when new;
- pay the reasonable cost of repair or reinstatement to a condition substantially the same as, but not better than when new; or
- pay up to the sum insured shown on your Policy Schedule.

This means:

- if the loss or damage is to unspecified personal effects, we will pay up to the limit per item for any one item, pair, set or collection for unspecified personal effects, up to the limit per claim for all items, pairs, sets or collections

- for specified items, we will pay up to the sum insured shown on the Policy Schedule against the item insured.

If we choose to pay to replace a specified item, we will pay no more than the amount that it would cost us to replace the item with an item substantially the same as, but not better than when new, even if you have specified the value for a higher amount, whether or not you have supplied a valuation. We have negotiated special arrangements with various suppliers to purchase items for less than retail cost. Premiums are therefore based upon us replacing items at less than retail cost. When we pay your claim for all your valuables on the Policy being damaged beyond economic repair (or not being recovered), the valuables section of the Policy is exhausted and comes to an end.

- (b) If we agree to pay a claim where film, photos, home movies or home videos or any similar recorded material is destroyed, we pay for the replacement with new, blank film, videos or similar (e.g. If a compact disc upon which you had photos stored is destroyed, we would replace it with a new, blank compact disc). We do not pay to reconstruct any circumstances or conditions.
- (c) If we agree to pay a claim where software is lost, damaged or destroyed, we pay the cost to replace it with the nearest equivalent new software. We do not pay for any software that was acquired by you at no cost.
- (d) Where an item required to settle a claim that we agree to pay is not commercially available in Australia, at our option, we:
 - replace the item with the nearest equivalent or similar new item available in Australia or overseas; or

- pay the cost to replace the item with the nearest equivalent or similar new item available in Australia or overseas.

(e) Pairs and Sets

In the event of a total loss of any article or articles which are part of a pair or set, we agree to pay you – at your option, exercisable after the loss – the full amount of the value of such pair or set, and you agree to surrender the remaining article or articles of the pair or set to us.

If you elect not to surrender the remaining article(s) of the pair or set to us, then, we pay no more than the actual value of the item. We do not give any allowance for any special value it may have as forming part of a pair or set, or for any reduction in value of the remaining part or parts.

A 'pair or set' means 2 or more articles, the collective value of which exceeds the sum of their individual values.

Part C – Domestic Workers Compensation

(Not available in all states or territories of Australia)

Your Policy Schedule indicates whether you have chosen this option.

Where you employ a domestic worker, we will pay the amount you are liable to pay if they are injured while working for you.

The relevant workers' compensation legislation for your State will determine what amount we will pay. We will not pay for workers who are working for you in your own business, trade, or profession. When this cover is operative it is provided by:

- Allianz Australia Insurance Limited
ABN 15 000 122 850 in the Australian Capital Territory;
- Allianz Australia Workers' Compensation (NSW) Limited ABN 17 003 087 545 in New South Wales;
- Allianz Australia Insurance Limited
ABN 15 000 122 850 in Western Australia; or
- Allianz Australia Insurance Limited ABN 15 000 122 850 in Tasmania.

What you must pay if you make a claim – Excess

‘Excess’ means the first amount you must contribute to any claim you make under this Policy.

We deduct the excess shown in the Policy or on the current Policy Schedule from the amount of your claim.

Where a sub-limit is applicable, the excess will be applied to the claim prior to applying the sub-limit. For example, if a ring worth $10,000 was stolen from the home and it has not been specified, the $5,000 per item jewellery sub-limit would apply.

If a $100 excess was applicable, this would be applied to the $10,000 claim, rather than the $5,000 sub-limit. Therefore, $5,000 would be payable. If the ring had been specified for $10,000, we would pay $9,900 – the $10,000 claim less the $100 excess. If the stolen ring was worth only $1,000, we would pay $900 - $1,000 less the $100 excess.

For earthquake or tsunami claims the excess is $200, or the amount shown on your Policy Schedule, whichever is greater.

All loss, destruction or damage occurring within a period of 72 hours of the earthquake is regarded as the one event.

When you will NOT have to pay an excess

You will not have to pay an excess if we agree to pay a claim as a result of damage that renders your home, contents or both beyond economic repair.

When you are not covered

The following General exclusions apply to Parts A and B of this Policy

1. This Policy excludes loss, damage, destruction, death, injury, illness, liability, cost or expense of any nature directly or indirectly caused by, contributed to by, resulting from, arising out of or in connection with any of the following, regardless of any other cause or event contributing concurrently or in any other sequence to the loss:

- involves violence against one or more persons;
- involves damage to property;
- endangers life other than that of the person committing the action;
- creates a risk to health or safety of the public or a section of the public; or
- is designed to interfere with or to disrupt an electronic system.

(c) radioactivity or the use, existence or escape of any nuclear fuel, nuclear material, or nuclear waste or action of nuclear fission or fusion.

- any process of cleaning involving the use of chemicals other than domestic chemicals;
- vermin or insects gnawing, biting, chewing, pecking, clawing, scratching or in any way polluting or contaminating your home or contents.

For example: If a mouse was to chew through an electrical wire, which led to a fire, the damage caused directly by the fire would be covered by this Policy under insured event (a), however any damage caused by the mouse's chewing would not be covered by this Policy;

- liquid seeping through a wall or floor other than when the liquid escapes as described in insured event (h);
 - water entering the home through an opening made for the purpose of alterations, additions, renovations or repair;

 - the action of the sea, high water, tidal wave.
- (c) loss or damage to sporting equipment (other than bicycles) while in use or play;

- (d) bicycles while they are used for racing or Pacemaking; or
- (e) flood.

General conditions

The following General conditions apply to all Sections of this Policy.

Changing your Policy

If you want to make a change to this Policy, the change becomes effective when:

- we agree to it; and
- we give you a new Policy Schedule detailing the change.

Other interests

You must not transfer any interests in this Policy without our written consent.

Any person whose interests you have told us about and we have noted on your Policy Schedule is bound by the terms of this Policy.

Cancelling your Policy

How you may cancel this Policy

- You may cancel this Policy at any time by telling us in writing that you want to cancel it.
- Where 'you' involves more than one person, we will only cancel the Policy when a written agreement to cancel the Policy is received from all persons named as the insured.

How we may cancel this Policy

- We may cancel this Policy in any of the circumstances permitted by law by informing you in writing.
- We will give you this notice in person or send it to your address last known to us.

The premium

We will refund to you the proportion of the premium for the remaining period of insurance. However, in the event you have made a claim under this policy and we have agreed to pay the full sum insured for your property no refund will be made.

Notices

Any notice we give you will be in writing, and it will be effective:

- if it is delivered to you personally; or
- if it is delivered or posted to your address last known to us.

It is important for you to tell us of any change of address as soon as possible.

Changes

You must tell us as soon as possible if circumstances occur, or if changes or alterations are intended or made which increase the risk of loss, damage or injury.

Examples of circumstances where the risk of loss, damage or injury may increase include where:

- you are having renovations undertaken;
- the home is left vacant or unoccupied for a period exceeding 90 days;
- the home falls into a state of disrepair;
- your home is opened up to the public for an exhibition or similar event (including if it is not for reward); or
- you are participating in a public exhibition (including if it is not for reward).

Unoccupancy

If your home is unoccupied for more than 90 consecutive days, you must tell us and obtain our written agreement for cover to continue.

If you do not do so, the cover for home and contents is limited to lightning, thunderbolt and earthquake for the period in excess of 90 consecutive days during which the home has been left unoccupied.

The period of 90 consecutive days is calculated from the date when the home was last occupied (as defined in “Words with Special Meanings”) regardless of the commencement or renewal date of the Policy.

Salvage

We are entitled to obtain and retain any items or materials that are salvaged or recovered after you make, and we agree, to pay a claim by replacing or paying to replace any items or materials. We may sell the items or materials and keep the proceeds. We may choose to sell the items or materials to you, if you agree to pay the market price for the items or materials.

Burglary protection

If any required burglary protection is noted on Your Policy Schedule, we have agreed to insure your home and contents only if those burglary protection devices are installed. If any of these devices is removed, altered, or left inoperative while you are absent from the site for more than 24 hours, without our prior consent, we may have the right to:

- decline; or
- reduce,

a claim to which this action contributes.

Care and maintenance

If you do not take reasonable care to:

- protect and maintain the property insured;
- prevent damage or injury to others or their property;
- minimise the cost of any claim under this Policy; or
- comply with all statutory obligations and by-laws or regulations relating to the safety of person or property we will not pay for loss, damage, liability or injury to which this failure to take reasonable care contributes.

Adjustment of premium on renewal

If a claim occurs in the previous period of insurance and you do not notify us until after the premium for the current period of insurance was calculated, then you must pay any additional premium that would have been calculated had you told us about the claim on the day that the claim occurred. This condition does not affect any other rights that we have, including the rights that we have under 'Your Duty of Disclosure'.

GST Notice

This policy has a GST provision in relation to premium and our payment to you for claims. It may have an impact on how you determine the amount of insurance you need. Please read it carefully. Seek professional advice if you have any queries about GST and your insurance.

Sums insured

All monetary limits in this policy may be increased for GST in some circumstances (see below). Claim settlements – Where we agree to pay When we calculate the amount we will pay you, we will have regard to the items below:

- Where you are liable to pay an amount for GST in respect of an acquisition relevant to your claim (such as services to repair a damaged item insured under the policy) we will pay for the GST amount. We will pay the GST amount in addition to the sum insured/limit of indemnity or other limits shown in the policy or in the current schedule. If your sum insured/limit of liability is not sufficient to cover your loss, we will only pay the GST amount that relates to our settlement of your claim. We will reduce the GST amount we pay for by the amount of any input tax credits to which you are or would be entitled.
- Where we make a payment under this policy as compensation instead of payment for a relevant acquisition, we will reduce the amount of the payment by the amount of any input tax credit that you would have been entitled to had the payment been applied to a relevant acquisition.
- Where the policy insures business interruption, we will (where relevant) pay you on your claim by reference to the GST exclusive amount of any supply made by your business that is relevant to your claim. Disclosure – Input tax credit entitlement If you register, or are registered, for GST you are required to tell us your entitlement to an input tax credit on your premium. If you fail to disclose or understate your entitlement, you may be liable for GST on a claim we may pay. This policy does not cover you for this GST liability, or for any fine, penalty or charge for which you may be liable.

Strata title mortgage protection cover

This cover applies only if you have arranged this Policy to insure only the interest of a mortgagee in a strata title unit.

This cover only applies when you own part of a building that has been subdivided into strata, community or similar title units and you have a mortgage on that part of the building.

We will pay the mortgagee the lowest of:

- (a) the sum insured shown on the Policy Schedule;
- (b) the amount to repair the damage to a condition similar to but no better than when new;
- (c) if the body corporate (or similar) partially covers the loss, then the difference between what the body corporate's insurance pays and the cost of the damage; or
- (d) the amount sufficient to discharge the mortgage held by you over the unit at the date of damage.

We pay only that part of the claim that applies to the interest of the mortgagee.

We only pay a claim if:

- (a) a claim would be payable under insured events (a) to (j) of this Policy (and not subject to any exclusion or other limitation in the Policy, including the exclusions on pages 63 to 67);
- (b) the policy of the body corporate or similar does not apply or only partially covers the loss; and
- (c) the mortgagee requires you to discharge your mortgage.

If you have arranged this Policy to insure only the interest of a mortgagee in a strata title unit:

- (a) no additional benefits are payable under this Policy;
- (b) no legal liability cover is provided; and
- (c) no optional covers such as Domestic Workers Compensation, or Valuables cover are provided.

Claims

What you must do

If an event happens which may give rise to a claim you must:

- take all reasonable precautions to prevent further loss, damage or liability;
- notify the police immediately if any of your property is lost, stolen, or maliciously or intentionally damaged;
- tell us or your Insurance Broker as soon as possible. You will be provided with a claim form and advice on the procedure to follow;
- supply us with all information we require to settle or defend the claim;
- notify us of any other insurance covering the same loss, damage or liability;
- co-operate with us fully in any action we take if we have a right to recover any money payable under this Policy from any other person; and
- advise us of your correct Australian Business Number and Taxable Percentage, if applicable. Any GST liability arising from your incorrect advice is payable by you. When we pay a claim, your GST status will determine the maximum amount we pay. We will (where relevant) pay you on your claim by reference to the GST exclusive amount of any supply made by any business of yours which is relevant to your claim.

What you must not do

You must not:

- authorise repairs to or arrange replacement of any of the property insured in connection with any claim without our consent, other than emergency repairs necessary to prevent further loss. If we agree to pay your claim, we will pay for these repairs, but you must retain all receipts; or

- admit liability if an accident occurs which is likely to result in someone claiming against you.

What we do

We may take over and conduct the defence or settlement of any claim or issue legal proceedings for damages. If we do this we will do it in your name. We have full discretion in the conduct of any legal proceedings and in the settlement of any claim. You must co-operate by giving us any statements, documents or assistance we require. This may include giving evidence in any legal proceedings.

What can affect a claim

We will reduce the amount of a claim by the excess shown in the Policy Terms and Conditions or on the Policy Schedule.

We may refuse to pay a claim if you are in breach of your Duty of Disclosure or any of the conditions of this Policy, including any endorsements noted on or attached to the Policy Schedule.

We pay only once for loss or damage from the same event covered by this Policy even if it is covered under more than one section of the Policy.

We may be entitled to refuse to pay or to reduce the amount of a claim if:

- it is in any way fraudulent; or
- any fraudulent means or devices are used by you or anyone acting on your behalf to obtain any benefits under this Policy.
